

ONLY $415,561 NEEDED TO REACH $2.5 MILLION GOAL

Alumni Encouraged to Utilize Tax Deductibility and Online Giving

Construction is well under way at 1701 White Columns Drive, where the foundation was completed over the summer.

Stop by the construction site over Homecoming on October 2 at 11 a.m. to take a tour and see the progress on the house.

Much progress was made this summer, including the installation of the roof trusses.

Construction is well under way at 1701 White Columns Drive, and each day more progress is made. In recent weeks, the foundation was completed and the roof trusses were installed.

It is thrilling for both undergraduates and alumni to see our new home take shape. I urge you to visit our Web site, www.Beta-Chi.com, to see regular construction updates and photos. Or, to see it in person, stop by during Homecoming on October 2 at 11 a.m. for a tour of the construction site.

Loyal alumni have committed $2,084,439 in support of the Securing the Future for the Beta-Chi Chapter of Kappa Sigma campaign, but our job is not yet finished. In order to provide our members the facility we promised, we must meet our $2.5 million fundraising goal.

To help alumni support the campaign, I am pleased to announce that we now have online giving available on our Web site. Simply click on the Donate Now tab, then on the green link that reads Securing the Future of Beta-Chi Giving Form. You will find an online giving form with options to make a one-time contribution or multi-year pledge with recurring credit card payments. I encourage you to utilize this tool; giving to Beta-Chi is now worry free and hassle free.

In addition, gifts made in support of the Securing the Future campaign can now be designated 100% tax deductible through the Beta-Chi Educational Foundation.

If you have not yet made a contribution or pledge in support of your Kappa Sigma brothers, I urge you to take advantage of these opportunities and stake your claim in this momentous project. If you have already made a pledge, please consider stretching your commitment and adding an extra year to your pledge. Fill out the enclosed pledge card, or visit www.betachi.com, to help us raise the remaining $415,561. Future generations of Beta-Chis depend on it.

Alumnus Shows Appreciation for Leadership Skills Gained from Beta-Chi

Why I Gave—Steve Sieckhaus '84

When Steve Sieckhaus '84 reunites with his pledge brothers from the '80s, it is only a matter of time before they begin rehashing (sometimes) exaggerated Beta-Chi stories. "There is not an outing or event where we get together and don't relive our very fond memories of those days."

Beyond the memories, Beta-Chi provided Steve with invaluable knowledge. "The leadership opportunities at Kappa Sigma are instrumental in developing the leaders of tomorrow. Holding an office or chairing a committee are valuable experiences on how to manage and deal with people. That is one of the main reasons I chose Beta-Chi—the opportunity to learn how to work with people."

Because of the lifelong friendships and leadership lessons Steve gained from Beta-Chi, he felt it was important to support the capital campaign. "I feel the campaign will support Beta-Chi's future and allow the organization to grow. My experiences in the Chapter were invaluable, and I want to help create the same opportunities for other students."

Steve was able to see his dollars at work recently when he stopped by the construction site to see the foundation and roof trusses being installed. "I think the house was in dire need of maintenance and updating. By renovating it and making additions, Kappa Sig will have one of the premier houses on campus, and they'll be able to attract the best young men from the University."

Steve earned a bachelor's degree in civil engineering and a master's degree in engineering management. He is the chief operating officer for Clayco Construction headquartered in St. Louis, where he lives with his wife, Terri, and their children, Anne and John. In his free time Steve enjoys coaching youth sports, hunting, fishing, and playing golf.
